

NATIONAL COLLEGE ARMY ROTC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

If you are currently a JUNIOR in High School this applies to you.

1. Complete the online application: OPENS after 11 June 2018

Go to <http://www.goarmy.com/rotc/scholarships.html>. You will need to create an account (remember your username/ID and password). Once create an account, simply login and complete the application. You will need to list a minimum of three schools you wish to attend, in preference order. Do not forget to write a short statement on why you want to be an Army Officer. There is also a 92 questions survey (CBEF) that must be completed. Click on the survey tab to complete. List everything you have been doing in and out of school.

2. Send a copy of your high school transcript to U.S. Army Cadet Command

Upload, mail, fax, or scan and email the transcript to U.S. Army Cadet Command.

EMAIL Address: usarmy.knox.usacc.mbx.train2lead@mail.mil

3. Take the Physical Fitness Assessment

The test consists of 1-minute push-ups, 1-minutes curl-ups/sit-ups and a 1-mile run. The test can be administered by a PE teach, sports coach or JROTC instructor. Performance is very important so prepare and do the very best you can. The fitness form is located at the bottom of the scholarship link. Upload, fax or scan and email the completed form.

EMAIL Address: usarmy.knox.usacc.mbx.train2lead@mail.mil

4. Set up an interview with the closest ROTC program

You must call and set up an appointment with the Professor of Military Science of the closest ROTC program or you can interview at the school of your choice. Remember, you are applying for a scholarship, so dress professionally. You never get a second chance to make a first and lasting impression. While dress is important, the interview is even more. So, make sure that you prepare for it by getting a good night's rest and arriving at least 15 minutes prior to the interview time. Also, you may want to brush up on current events, practice explaining why you want to be an officer and what your goals are. These are just a few things that might come up in the interview.

5. Deadline for completing your scholarship packet

Applications for the U.S. Army ROTC 3 and 4 year College Scholarship Program for school year 2019-2020 will be accepted beginning after June 11, 2018. The last date to apply for a scholarship is 10 Jan 19. All updates to your application must be postmarked by 28 February 2019.
